

"Spanish Rhapsody"

performed by pianist Damira Feldman

Sunday, September 7th, 2008 at 3:00 pm

Bass Museum, 2121 Park Avenue, Miami Beach, FL 33139

bassmuseum

Join us for an exclusive performance by Russian-born pianist Damira Feldman, set against an exhibition of some of the world's finest works on paper by Spanish artists such as Pablo Picasso, Joan Miró, Juan Gris and Julio Gonzalez.

The concert, featuring Impressões Seresteiras from Ciclo Brasileiro by Villa-Lobos, Danzas Espanolas by Granados, the Spanish Suite "Andalucia", with it's the most famous Malaguena by Lecuona and the Adios Nonino-Tango Rhapsody by Piazzolla, will showcase the best of Latin music.

This program reflects the dynamism, inner rhythm, expressive scale of sound and melodic expression drawn from traditional Spanish idioms.

*Seating is limited. General Museum admission
For information please call 305 673 7530*